Disclosure and Accuracy of the Information You Have Provided

In deciding to provide the insurance under this Policy and setting the terms of it, we have relied on the information you have given us. The information you give us in relation to the insurance under this Policy must be accurate and complete

In addition to the answers you have provided to questions asked you are required to disclose material circumstances that gives a fair presentation of the risks that are or would be insured under this Policy.

A fair presentation of the risks means that you must:

- disclose to us every material circumstance which you know or ought to know or, failing that, sufficient information to alert us of the need to make further enquiries; and
- make such disclosure in a reasonably clear and accessible manner; and
- ensure that, in such disclosure, any material representation as to:
 - a matter of fact is substantially correct, and
 - a matter of expectation or belief is made in good faith.

A circumstance or representation is material if it would influence our judgement (as a prudent underwriter) in determining whether to take the risk and, if so, on what terms. If you are in any doubt as to whether a circumstance or representation is material, then you should disclose it.

If, before or after the start date of this insurance as shown under the period of insurance, you become aware that the information you have given to us is inaccurate or incomplete or you have any particular concerns about any of the information you have provided or should provide then you must advise your insurance intermediary as soon as possible.

If the information you have given us in relation to this insurance proves to be inaccurate or incomplete, then we may:

- amend the terms of this Policy, which may be applied as if they were already in place prior to any claim where the validity of that claim was impacted by the inaccurate or incomplete information, or
- reduce the amount we pay on a claim in the proportion the premium paid bears to the premium we would have charged you had the information not been inaccurate or incomplete, or
- treat this Policy as if it never existed, which means no claims will be paid and the premium paid under it will be returned to you. This will only be done if this insurance would not have been provided if the information had been accurate or complete.

If we establish that you deliberately or recklessly provided false or misleading information in relation to the insurance provided under this Policy, we will treat this insurance as if it never existed, which means no claims will be paid and we will not return the premium. If this happens we will advise your insurance intermediary and you in writing to your last known address.

Change in Risk Information

If the information you have given us in relation to the insurance provided under this Policy changes, or there is any change in or variance of the risk(s), before or during the period of insurance, then we need to know as it may result in:

- us applying different terms, and/or
- a claim not being paid (in whole or in part), and/or
- it being determined that the Policy is no longer suitable to meet your needs.

You must make a fair presentation of the risks to us if there is any change in or variance of the risks before or after the start date of this insurance as shown under the period of insurance. An explanation of fair presentation of the risks is shown under Disclosure and Accuracy of the Information You Have Provided above.

To enable us to assess any such changes or variations in information and/or risk(s) you must tell us immediately or as soon as practicable of any such changes or variations. This can be done by advising your insurance intermediary.

Your right to cancel

You have 14 days to decide if this Policy meets your requirements. If you are not satisfied you can cancel within 14 days of the Policy starting or within 14 days of receiving your documents (whichever is the later). We will charge a premium for the period we have been insuring you and an administration charge of £12.50 plus insurance premium tax is applied. Minimum Cover

While the insured vehicle is in:

- Any country which is a member country of The European Union (EU).
- Any country in respect of which the European Commission is satisfied has made arrangements to meet the requirements of Article 8 (1) second subparagraph 7 of EU Directive 2009/103/EC relating to civil liabilities arising from use of a motor vehicle.

This Policy automatically provides the minimum compulsory level of cover you need by law in the country concerned. This legal minimum does not include loss of or damage to the vehicle.

Full cover within the European Union

We will extend the Policy to provide the cover shown in your schedule for up to 60 days in any one period of insurance to any country of the EU and Andorra, Bosnia & Herzegovina, Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, Serbia and Switzerland provided:

We will also pay any customs duty which you may have to pay and/or the reasonable cost of delivering the vehicle to your address in the United Kingdom.

Please note in the event of a claim, you may be required to evidence your travel.

Section 8

No Claims Discount

If you or any driver named on your Policy make a claim, even if you were not responsible (for example, if the vehicle is stolen or damaged by vandals), or a claim is made against you, you could lose part or all of your No Claims Discount. If a claim is made under your Policy, we may also increase your premium or excess when you renew your Policy.

Claims which do not affect your No Claims Discount:

- payments made for windscreen damage (up to two in the Policy period).
- payments for emergency treatment fees.
- claims which are not your fault where we have recovered all of our outlay.

If your renewal is due and a claim under your Policy is still outstanding, we may reduce your no claim discount provisionally. However, if we establish that the circumstances of that outstanding claim should not have affected your no claim discount, we will restore your no claim discount once the claim is concluded and refund any extra premium that has been paid in respect of the reduction in the no claim discount.

We apply a step-back Policy that reduces your No Claims Discount for each claim made when you renew your Policy, depending on the claim or claims made. For an example of what would happen if you made a claim within the period of insurance, please see the table below:

Protected No Claims Discount

If you have earned 4 or more years No Claims Discount, you can choose to pay an additional premium at the start or at renewal of your Policy, to protect it. By doing this you can prevent your No Claims Discount being reduced after a claim has been made on your Policy.

Protected No Claims Discount does not protect the overall price of your insurance Policy. The price of your insurance Policy may increase following an accident even if you were not at fault.

The table below shows how your No Claims Discount would be affected if you made a claim or claims and you have chosen to protect your No Claims Discount. If your Policy includes Protected No Claims Discount, this will be shown on your schedule.
