Failure to provide answers in-line with the requirement of the Act may mean that Your policy is invalid and that it does not operate in the event of a claim.

A word or expression to which a specific meaning has been attached will keep the same meaning wherever it appears unless specifically stated otherwise. A particular word or phrase, which is not defined, will have its ordinary meaning.

Where the Financial Ombudsman Service cannot deal with a complaint, the dispute shall be referred to arbitration which is a formal and binding process where disputes are resolved by independent arbitrators in accordance with the Arbitration Act. The decision of the appointed arbitrator is binding and the arbitrator may require You or the Insurer to pay the costs.

The arbitrator will be chosen jointly by You and the Insurer. If there is a disagreement on the appointment of an arbitrator, the President of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators will decide.

7. Unless some other law is agreed in writing, this policy is governed by English law. If there is a dispute, it will only be dealt with in the courts of England or of the country within the United Kingdom in which Your main residence is situated.
8. Contribution – if at any time of any loss or damage arising under this policy there is another insurance policy covering such loss or damage, the Insurer will not be liable for more than their rateable proportion.
9. Limit of Liability – in the event of a second claim payment as a consequence of any Insured Incident, the Insurer will deem that full liability has been met under the terms of this policy and the insurance cover will cease upon settlement.
10. Claims – the Insurer shall not be liable for any claim arising directly or indirectly caused by or contributed by or in consequence of a loss listed under the heading "General Exclusions".
